NORTHWEST AFFAIRS.

The following is from the Winnipeg Free Press:—

The Northwest delegates, Dr. Brett and Mr. Betts, have arrived at Ottawa, if not in time to advise as to the draft of the proposed Government bill for amending the constitution of the Territories, at least in time to give the benefit of their experience and personal knowledge of the situation as to the shape it should be made to take. A bill of the kind was promised for last session, but it was thrust aside to make way for more pressing matters. The Government cannot a second time very well disregard its promise in this respect, and as a Northwest bill was one of the few measures foreshadowed in the opening speech it will doubtless be forthcoming.

The bills affecting the government of the Territories are certainly serious enough to deserve attention. At least two of the sessions of the local Assembly have been characterized by events and conditions which were little less than a scandal. In their political development the Territories have got beyond the swaddling period, although not yet reaching that point at which they may be left to look after themselves. They are midway between absolute dependence, and the confident self-possession of maturity; they are too big for the one and not strong enough for the other.

Between the Assembly and an irresponsible Executive there was naturally an unceasing conflict, ultimately ending in what was virtually a legislative deadlock. The Executive rested on its rights as confirmed by the constitution in its present shape; the Assembly resented a condition under which it could be systematically ignored, and declared for those traditional rights which are supposed to belong to all British legislative bodies, especially in the control of the public revenues. The one felt bound to be governed by the law as it was, and the other chafed because the law was not what it ought to be. It was felt that under the constitution as it is there was little necessity for an Assembly; and in the struggle for a larger measure of responsible government which naturally sprang out of the situation the Assembly thought it could do nothing less, in the maintenance of its own dignity, than to block the wheels of legislation as far as was in its power; and to let the whole matter rest at that. It could not control the supplies, but it could refuse to vote them; such a course might prove futile enough, to be sure, as an irresponsible Executive is not bound by any nice or delicate scruples; but it would at least be an assertion of rights that it ought to have.

Such a situation as was developed during the last session cannot be permitted to occur again; something must be done to allow of more harmonious relations between the Assembly and the Advisory Board. The people do not want, because they are not prepared for full responsible government, but they want a larger measure of it than they at present possess. Dr. Brett probably voiced the popular sentiment when, in an interview with a Free Press representative on his way through to Ottawa, he said the Dominion Government would be pressed to amend the Northwest constitution so as "to give the Assembly absolute control of all funds and to make the Council responsible to the Assembly for the expenditure of the same." Nothing less than this will be satisfactory to the people of the Territories. With this granted, matters will move more smoothly than they have been doing, but without it there will be a recurrence of the same old conflict. The Assembly should either be given the power it wants or Parliament should abolish it. It is mere playing at Government to say that it shall have to go through the form of voting the supplies while it is refused a voice in the expenditure of them. That is contrary to all our notions of British Parliamentary government.

A nearer approach to a full measure of responsibility might be made in other directions without placing too great a burden on the young Territories. It is intended to ask that power shall be given to the Lieutenant-Governor to dissolve the Assembly. Under the constitution as at present existing the House must run its full time before a dissolution can take place. This power is an essential condition of our system of government; indeed, without it there can be no meaning to an Executive responsible to the Legislature. The Dominion Parliament should meet the wishes of the people in a generous spirit. They are able to look after themselves to a greater extent than has yet been entrusted to them, and it is the wisest policy to avoid imposing any conditions that have the appearance of restraint. It will only be a few years when greater liberties and fuller powers will be demanded, and these will be obtained, perhaps, after the agitation that seems inseparable from development of this kind; but in the meantime the people are clear as to their present requirements, and as they are reasonable and just in their nature it cannot be expedient to refuse them.

Fresh Supply of Oranges and Lemons at R. T. Goodfellow's.

Q. Where do you buy your Tea, it is always so good?

A. I always buy from F. C. Baker.

The concert given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening of last week was well attended by an audience delighted with the excellent rendering of the carefully prepared programme. The opening selection—a chorus, "Migara"—was followed by a number of solos and duets, and pleasantly relieving any monotony by a number of readings and recitations. In every way the entertainment was a success, and well repaid the efforts of those who were at the trouble of preparing the entertainment.

THE C. P. R.

The Empire says:—After being five years in operation, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company meet at their annual gathering in Montreal within a few days of the date at which the road was to have been finally completed according to the original contract. The company now have 5,500 miles of railway, with 1,600 miles of tributary lines, and connections with every part of Canada, as well as the States, while the first of the new fleet of steamships has just arrived at Vancouver from China and Japan. The total expenses and earnings for the past four years are given as follows:

Gross Earnings.	Net Earnings.
1887.....$11,606,412 80	$3,504,118 16
1888.....13,185,535 60	3,870,774 92
1889.....15,369,138 43	6,127,836 16
1890.....16,552,528 98	6,209,700 51

It is instructive also to note how this great national enterprise is affecting the interests of different localities. Branch lines are running in all directions through the Northwest, reaching the most important farming sections and proving of immense utility to the farmers in these vast regions. The Qu'Appelle, Long Lake and Saskatchewan railway extended this year to Prince Albert, 247 miles from Regina; the Calgary and Edmonton railway is to be extended southward from Calgary to Fort McLeod, 110 miles; the Columbia and Kootenay railway is nearly finished; the directorate propose to obtain control of the Temiscamingue railway from Mattawa northward, and have recently secured possession of the Minneapolis St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie, and the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic railway. The sales of the company's lands have been extremely favorable, and the directors anticipate that the earnings next year will pay five per cent without regard to the guarantee on dividend, which expires in August 1895. In addition to this record the recent fast trip across the continent, and the long anticipated admission to New York city should prove causes of congratulation upon the present occasion. This, then, is the position of our national highway to-day, and the result of the years of struggle against bitter and unscrupulous opposition in the interests of a great continental undertaking by the Government and party of Sir John Macdonald.

Statistics relating to public debts have lately been compiled at Washington. The United States Federal debt is $915,962,112; the State debts amount to $223,107,883, and the counties owe $141,950,845. The counties' debt has grown $17,800,- 000 in ten years, but the State indebtedness has decreased—by the convenient process of repudiating the payment of it.

The census returns of Melbourne, Australia, show a population of 489,- 000 as compared with 283,000 in 1881. This increase of 206,000 inhabitants in ten years gives the title of "Marvellous" Melbourne some point, and serves as a refreshing comment upon the recent intimation of the Globe that Australia was "going to the dogs." Victoria, of which Melbourne is the capital, has for many years been strongly protectionist.

There is a painful impression gaining ground in a good many quarters that Unrestricted Reciprocity is not all that fancy painted it, and that a limited arrangement is better. In pursuance of this belief the Toledo Blade expresses a shrewd opinion to that effect illustrated by a homely parallel: "There is a vast deal of rot talked about Canada and ourselves being 'neighbors.' Two farmers whose lands adjoin are neighbors, but it don't follow that they will abolish the line fence, and allow farmer A's cattle to forage on farmer B's growing grain, and farmer B's pigs to root up farmer A's potatoes, for the sake of being neigh-borly."

Professor Robertson, the Dominion Dairy Commissioner, has given practical evidence of his desire to help on dairying in Prince Edward Island by offering a gold medal to the best student in agriculture at tending that thorough and excellent institution, Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown. Agriculture is attracting the interest of the students, and it is proposed to allow the Government Stock Farm to be used as an experimental station in connection with the course of study. Professor Robertson, in his annual report, speaks hopefully of the Island's prospects: "The agricultural capabilities of the island are very great.
It has a much smaller percentage of waste land than any of the other provinces. Cheese factories were started in several sections twelve or fourteen years ago. As a consequence of some unexplained misfortunes in management, the business has been abandoned almost entirely."

Tenders are being asked by the School Board of the Central School for the building of an addition to the present building. A separate tender is also being asked for a heating apparatus for the whole building. Tenders must be in by noon of Saturday, June 6.

The young men of the town are enjoying themselves thoroughly these pleasant long evenings. Hunting leather is the favorite amusement, and the lacrosse and cricket balls are kept steadily on the go till darkness puts a stop to the game.

GENERAL NEWS

Ottawa, May 12.—It is understood to day that the following contracts have been awarded to successful tenderers for Indian contracts:—Sarcee, Hull Bros., Calgary; Stony, Leeson & Scott, Calgary; Blackfoot Crossing, W. G. Conrad, Fort McLeod; Upper Blood, P. Gallagher & Son, Winnipeg; Lower Blood, P. Burns; Piegan, Walrond Ranch Company, McLeod; St. Joseph's Indian School, J. Thompson, Calgary.

Shanghai, May 13.—The following particulars have been received of the attack on the Czarevitz: The Czarevitz had gone to the picturesque resort called Otan, on Lake Binaunt, six miles from Kioto. There a native policeman named Tsuda Sanzo attacked the prince, by striking him on the head with intent to murder. Owing to the thickness of the sun helmet worn by the prince the sword was deflected, and described a cut down the side of the forehead, not of a serious character. The imperial party hastened back to Kioto and got surgical assistance. The culprit is believed to be insane. The Japanese emperor and his ministers hurried to Kioto to express their sympathy.

Washington, D.C., May 12.—The Italian Consul at New Orleans, it is understood, has been recalled by his Government, and the duties of Consul at that city will be discharged by a Consul at some other point.

London, May 12.—Senator Leonard is seriously ill at his residence here, and but slight hopes of his recovery are entertained.

Los Angeles, May 12.—Pilot Dill, Capt. O'Farrell and the five seamen on board the Robert and Minnie along with George A. Burt, the supercargo, were yesterday charged with violation of the neutrality laws. In the cases of O'Farrell, Dill and Burt bail was fixed at $5,000 each and in the case of the seamen $2,500 each. The only one who gave bail was Dill. The others are still in the hands of the United States marshal.

Rome, May 12.—The anarchist Vincenzo Frappicini has been arrested at Naples as he was about to land, on arriving from Buenos Ayres. He had in his possession 33 dynamite cartridges concealed in his luggage. Frappicini fled from Italy years ago, fearing to return home. He expected to arrive about the last of April, so as to be on hand with his dynamite on May day, but the steamer was delayed by storms. The detention gave the Italian consul at Buenos Ayres an opportunity to locate Frappicini's whereabouts and advise the Naples police.

London, May 12.—In the House of Commons to-day Wm. Henry Smith moved the expulsion from that body of Captain Edmund Verney, member for North Buckinghamshire, who was recently convicted on a charge of procuring girls under 21 years of age for immoral purposes. In making the motion Smith asked the Speaker whether Capt. Verney, following the usual course should attend on special order and answer the charge at the bar of the House. The Speaker replied that if Capt. Verney had been convicted on his own confession the House would consider that fact, and agree that his presence was unnecessary. Mr. Smith thereupon formally repeated his motion which recited that it was impossible that Capt. Edmund Verney could remain a member of the British House of Commons. The motion was seconded by the Right Hon. Henry Campbell Bannerman, member for Stirling. In the midst of profound silence the Speaker put the motion, which was agreed to.

London, May 12.—The Czar has conferred a new title on Grand Duchess Elizabeth, Queen Victoria's grand daughter, on account of her conversion to the Orthodox Church of Russia. Hereafter she is to be styled, "The Grand Duchess of the True Faith." The relatives of the Grand Duchess in Germany and England do not appreciate the honor as much as they might.

Washington, May 12.—Commissioner Baum, of the Pension Office, has written a letter to Secretary Noble in which he says that after an examination of the accounts current of several pension agents for the present fiscal year, and after a careful approximation of probable payments for April, May and June he has reached the conclusion that the total payments for army pensions during the present fiscal year will not exceed $116,000,000. The total appropriation for this service is $125,769,000, leaving an apparent surplus of $9,769,000. The Commissioner has instructed the pension agents to pay as many vouchers as possible during June, in order to have few claims go over into the next fiscal year. He says the allowance of so many claims under the act of June 27th, has materially reduced the amount of first payment on pension certificates.

St. Petersburg, May 12.—The Czar has ordered the Jewish banker, Ginsburg, to quit St. Petersburg and close up his business there, for an open attempt to influence the minister of the interior to ameliorate the condition of the Jews by offering to devote a million roubles to charity.

Lisbon, May 12.—The Bank of Portugal temporarily refuses to cash its notes. It is rumored that a fresh decree will be issued authorizing a forced paper currency. It is announced that the sixty days' suspension of payments does not apply to state transactions.

London, May 12.—The Right Hon. Wm. Henry Smith, who was recently appointed warden of the Cirque ports, and who in consequence of such appointment is obliged to go before his constituents for re-election was returned unopposed.

Toronto, May 12.—A London cablegram says the Anglo Belgian expedition to the head waters of the river Congo, Central Africa, promoted by the King of the Belgians, has left for the scene of its work. Command has been given to Capt. W. G. Stairs, of Halifax, formerly of the Emin Relief Expedition headed by Stanley. The European members of the party sailed from London for Zanzibar, thence to march inland for seven months to Katanga. It is expected the work of this expedition will take two years to complete.

London, May 12.—The Paris Bourse is panicky owing to Portuguese affairs. Spanish issues are flat.

At 2 p.m. American securities had declined in sympathy with the general list.

THE RIFLE.

On Friday last the adjourned annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Provincial Rifle Association was held in Mr. T. J. Agnew's office. The Secretary, Mr. Agnew, read the financial report, which showed the affairs of the Association to be in a healthy condition. The election of officers was then proceeded with, resulting as follows:—T. E. Baker, President; T. J. Agnew and J. Stewart, Vice-Presidents; J. D. Hanafin, Sec. Treasurer. Council—Capt. Norman, T. E. Baker, Corp. Kerr, Sergt. Bailey, H. W. Newlands, D. Williamson, A. Goodfellow, J. McKay, J. L. Johnson and J. D. Maveety. Patron—D. H. Macdonald, M.P. Vice-Patrons—Sheriff Hughes, G. S. Davison, Esq., and Thos. Swanston, Esq. Representative Member—Capt. Waldo. Auditors—S. Brewster and T. N. Campbell. After the election of officers had been concluded, some discussion took place as to the advisability of entering teams in the Dominion and Territorial Rifle Leagues, when it was decided by vote to enter only for the Territorial League. A team was then chosen to take part in the first match of the series, which took place on Saturday last. The North West Mounted Police have entered teams for both Leagues, and having kindly offered the use of their range for the occasion, both teams shot at the same time. Notwithstanding a strong puffy wind and no practice, very good scores were made by both teams. The scores are:

The programme of the recently formed North West Rifle League has been issued, and we have to thank the Secretary, Mr. K. Graburn, for a copy. The shoots are arranged to suit those of the senior League, but are to be more numerous—nine instead of five, the causes for shortening the programme in Old Canada not being existent in the Northwest.
